

// TAKE ME HERE

Isolated, spectacular Scrubby Bay. Accessible only by a helicopter ride over dramatic coastline, or a 40-minute journey along a 4WD track through cliff-top farmland. Yeah, I know the weather's been wild, but I think that'll make it even more beautiful. Don't worry about the cold, there's a huge stone fireplace. And an outdoor spa with ocean views. And an indoor/outdoor bath with ocean views. My next birthday needs to be here. There's also beds for 14 - who's coming? I'll bring the wine, you bring the Guess Who.

The Scrubby Bay House (officially opens in Spring - if you book, can I join you?) was named as a finalist in HOME magazine's 2014 Home of the Year awards. All these insane photos are by the handsome Simon Devitt, except the bottom-most, provided by Annandale.
